Спаяя

My darling Mishkin,

Such loving thanks for y^r dear letter, I was delighted to receive. — All our thoughts are so much with you & we wish you were with us, what fun it would have been.

But a little more patience & then you will get away.
All of us will rejoice to see you, Darling. —

Alga & Petia live opposite to the nursery, & you will have those rooms when you come. —

We have real summer weather, too delightful. The foliage of the trees is too pretty, so varied in colour. — Charming new paths have been made along by the river, so that we have several quite new, shady walks. —

Boris came here for 24 hours. —

Alga seems very happy to be here again, only wish they were not leaving so soon. — We were very happy to hear that you were allowed to accompany the others to Kiel and back to the dead old Ashore, but the coming home must have been melancholy & you feel awfully

lonely I have no doubt.

But one must be grateful for every little happiness, & swallow the sorrow down. —

The story of your expedition to town under Petia & Agi's surveillance amused me too much, & I can see your offended face, had I say. —

Nicky is out shooting the young couple are walking, so I have quickly ordered my cart for a little time & so as to keep my forces for an afternoon's walk. —

This evening we have service in the little Church tent — I love
the evening service.
How good bye & God bless you.
Tenderest kisses, Misha dear,
fr. fr. devoted old

Misha.

Slender kisses you —
