

С. И. В.

Государю Императору.

Livadia -

Sept. 27th 1902

My darling Nickie
I must send you
a few lines to tell you how much my thoughts are with you, realising how lonely y^r dear little heart must be, tho'
darling Taria is there to cheer you up. It is a blessing for all
our life when one
has had a happy time
to look back upon,

& all the world seems
so different afterwards & everything seems
so much richer &
fuller. But alas
that the wishes dearest to one's heart can
so rarely be fulfilled & one has to be contented with the "might have been". — God
always knows best,
He sends us joys &
sorrows to try our hearts & teach us love
our neighbours as ourselves. — One's character

ripened & one no longer is a child; - one's heart & mind develop.

What a joy it will
be when you come
to us - we thought
you would like to be in Annapolis room
so as to be under our roof. - I am writing in pencil
as I am resting
after my headache.

To-day the weather
is perfectly divine,
yesterday a regular
storm was blowing

on land. - Everything
is scorched, no
water any where,
graucy looks miserable.
He died at Su-^{ale}.
The odors once & are going to take tea
there to-day, after paying a visit to old Milintian. -

The Children are well & merry - the 2
big ones lunch with
us & all the people,
four of the Standard
officers lunch too to the Children's joy, as they are all greatest friends.

2/ He spent 6 delightful days on board -
just the  thing you & Taria would have enjoyed. -

He went to Bachtshin & Tshifutkale for Sebastopol, wh. was
most interesting
indeed. - Poor
little Taria has got a slight influenza
& Tece is suffering
again terribly fr. stones
in the liver. -

We hope Taria showed you Nicky's letter. -

I wonder how Glen gets on with the family. — In wh.
rooms are you?
When do you think
of coming. — Fine
of the Standard
boats are exercising
under sail. P.
up here they look
like toys — Nicky
has rushed down
to the beach to have a good look at them.
Shikouma has re-
turned, very content
with all he saw. —

You will bring
y^r flute wont you,
we must make
some nice music.
Nicky has ridden
several times, I
not yet. —

I wont bother you
with a longer letter.

I kiss you very
tenderly, my darling Baz, & pray God to bless & keep you —

Ever y^r Old Sister

Elise.

Kiss Maria dear, — I hope she got my letter when she arrived.

I sent it by the first field paper. —
Truly yours —
