BUCKINGHAM PALACE.

My dear darling Misha,

I thank you with all my heart for your dear letter which made me very happy yesterday. As you can imagine, I am very glad to be here and most happy to stay with dear aunt Alix. We are always together going out a lot everywhere in order to see as many things as possible. Everything is so interesting that I am speechless, especially Windsor which has been so splendidly rearranged now that there is nothing alike anywhere. We spend our time here in London in such a nice and gay way but to-day we are leaving for Sandringham and I must say that I am very sorry to leave Buckingham Palace where we lived so well all this time. The weather is very fine and warm, but that unbearable wind is always blowing. My thoughts are always with you my dear Misha and I hope that you are feeling well now and eat a little more. Your recent terrible loss of weight is quite disturbing and I hope that when we meet again you will be a little fatter. Toria is about to come back and I shall be very glad to see her again.

Yesterday morning, I suddenly felt a very strong pain in my back and was quite upset, but thank Heaven, I am feeling much better to-day owing to Dr. Kalinin's medicines and I can walk again without aching. Yesterday, I stayed home all day long, but we however had supper at Count's Menedorf's where we had the great pleasure to hear the singing of one of Peshka's brothers. Peshka does not sing any more at all. His singing was splendid and his voice is as excellent as it used to be. But now, we are about to leave. My tenderest kisses to you and Baby. God bless you ! I shall pray for you most especially this week.

With all my love.

Your Mummy.

Greetings to Dashkov. I hope he is better.
