Maria Feodorovna to her son Michael

Naples, the 21st April 1909

On board H.M. Yacht Victoria & Albert.

My dear Mishkin,

It has been such a long time without news from you that I got the spleen, although my life here is so marvellous and so gay. I hope that you are feeling well and seeing Baby often. Every day we see something new. Yesterday, we visited Pompey and I thought of you. How remarkably interesting all this is! Unfortunately, we could not visit Capri as it was not possible to lower the boat since the sea was very rough. Uncle Bertie left us to-day and returned to England. He was so nice and so friendly that I am very sorry that he left. Friday, we shall be heading for Athens and after a few days there we shall start for Venice. We live splendidly and I am enjoying a marvellous journey.

In Palermo, we met Plumpy and we had a marvellous ride in motor-launch. He looks very healthy and well-recovered.

Now, I must finish this letter. My tenderest kisses to you, my dear Misha. I hope that you have not forgotten me completely. God bless you !

Loving you with all my heart,

Your old Mummy.
