

AS HOME FOR ALLIED FIGHTING MEN
WAS OPENED IN WASHINGTON, D.C.

Representatives of the United Nations' forces, wearing the uniforms of their home countries, pose for a group picture on the steps of Dumbarton Oaks at Washington, D.C., on the occasion of its opening as a club for the fighting men of the Allied nations. The countries and their representatives, most of whom are shown above, included: Australia: Lt. Col. F. G. Sutton; Belgium: Col. B.E.M. Diepenrykx, Military Attache; Canada: Lt. Col. C. M. Drury; China: Major David Lee, Commander Yang; Cuba: Capt. Felipe Cadenas, Lt. Col. Felipe Munilla; Czechoslovakia: Col. Oldrich Spaniel; El Salvador: Maj. Herman Baron, Military Attache; Fighting France: Commandant Gayral, Lt. Rene A. Dumont, Adjutant Guy De la Salle; Great Britain: Capt. Jameson, Assistant Naval Attache, Major R.A.S. Williams; Greece: Capt. A. Leondopoulos; Guatemala: Col. Felix Castellanos, Military Attache; Haiti: Col. Roche B. Laroche, Military Attache; India: Capt. Choudhuri, Military Aide to the Agent General; Mexico: Gen. Tomaso Sanchez Hernandez, Lt. Col. P.A. Perez Allende, Lt. Hernandez Sagarra; Netherlands: Commander G. Koudys, Lt. van der Weyde, Commander J. Blaauboer; Nicaragua: Col. Hermogenes Prado; Norway: Lt. Lief Rosenvold Lund; Philippines: Maj. Gen. Basilio Valdes, Col. Manolo Nieto, Lt. Col. J. C. Velasquez; Poland: Maj. Stefan Dobrowolski; Union of South Africa: Maj. J. D. de Villiers Radoman; U. S. S. R.: Maj. P. Barayev, Commander M. Skriagin; Yugoslavia: Maj. M. V. Mishovich, Assistant Military Attache. The two women officers in center background, associated with the Fighting French forces, are unidentified.

K-NT-X (See accompanying photos)