COMBINED OPERATIONS RAID ON DIEPPE.

British Tanks were landed in the Dieppe area on Aug. 19th in the biggest-ever Combined Operations raid. It was carried out in daylight. Taking part were Canadian and United Kingdom Special service Troops, a detachment of a U.S. RANGER Battalion and a small contingent of Fighting French. The force was carried and escorted by the Royal Navy, and air support and protection was provided by the R.A.F.
