

GERMAN RAIDER'S CREW PICKED UP AFTER ATTACK ON FLEET

OG 43.

A photograph received in London to-day of one of the German flying-boats which was brought down in the sea after taking part in the recent air attack upon ships of the British Fleet. The attack lasted for five hours, and over a hundred bombs were dropped - none finding its mark. The picture shows the crew of the Nazi machine preparing to launch their rubber boat. They were picked up and taken prisoner by a British destroyer.

CERTIFIED BY

CENTRAL PRESS
PHOTOS. LTD.

AS PASSED BY CENSOR
PRESS AND CENSORSHIP BUREAU