

ies of enemy
lost has been on where Mrs.
welve families

Germans are tough and won't give in, but she doesn't believe it. She knows what bombing is, she says, and no one can is worth fighting to preserve.

As Mrs. Neame says: "If you
'aven't got these things in life, then wot 'ave you got?"

fact is that men like Hambr and Munch were not of the same calibre as the grea Nansen, and, in striving to carry

"WE'RE IMPROVING ON IT, SIR WILLIAM"

News Chronicle
1. März 1944

IV

7

3<sup>2</sup> Spalten Breite

Zu Di. 25/4 No