

13th June, 1911.

Dear Dr Whyte,

I am so sorry, first of all that your invitation to dine with you to-morrow was not replied to sooner. I have been in Lossiemouth and have only got back this morning.

In the second place I am sorry that another dinner prevents my being with you. It would be a great pleasure to me to meet you, as I was taught from my earliest days to hold your name in reverence. My people were all Free Church.

Yours very sincerely,

Chas Macdonald
