WHITEHALL 2043

18th June 1937.

Dear Sir,

I understand from Mr. F.J. Kershaw that you have not received all the resolutions for our Berlin Congress.

I enclose a set of the documents which were sent to you some time ago and, of course, printed resolutions are now being received in this Office from Paris Headquarters every day. I also enclose a set of the documents received during the last few days. These are not being sent to all Delegates before they leave for Berlin. On registration in Berlin each Delegate will receive a complete set of all documents.

Yours faithfully,

Owen Jones
British Commissioner.
