Dear Sholto,

The pilot who flew with us at Henderson in 1920 was I believe named MacFarlane. My wife
cannot help me here
though she helps me
with City Council work & two charities we both give some time to help.

When my present
term as councillor <sup>to an end</sup> comes in three years I shall start writing my memoirs. At present several directorships in N.Z., also in Australia
keep me occupied
when I am not playing
airport committees
for our new $16 mil.
project here in Auckland.
Every year we plan a visit to England then every winter we
