

Linadia.
Sept. 26th
1900.

Darling Miala,
Hoping that by this time you have safely reached Denmark, I am going to write to you. —

What a nuisance that the weather was so bad
& you were kept back
at Reval. Nicky, I am sure, was furious. —

I can't on account
of my leg. — Last night
we dined at Au Woodpe
it was a charming
drive, as the moon
was shining brightly. —

I am trying to hear how you liked "your place".
Why your shooting was splendid. Did you take many photos. There? —

Next time I shall send you the last ones I did
of you with the peaches. —
The weather is ideal

2/ He played lawn-tennis
once, else drive & ride.
How long is Victoria remaining at Frederic^{ton}
So kiss her from me. - J.

Nicky is quite satisfied with his room, full
of my furniture, so this winter I must set to work at yours. -

How long ago Ebro & I & Clara were now,
but what a nice time
it was - God grant it may be repeated again. -

When I drive my little white horses, it reminds so much of the shooting.

But now I must hurry, as we are going
out. - Goodbye, Michkin
dear, + God bless you.

Write soon to J. Ewing
old Sister

Thine

I kiss you + Olga. -

Residencia
de Estudiantes

Residencia
de Estudiantes

Residencia
de Estudiantes

Residencia
de Estudiantes

Residencia
de Estudiantes

Residencia
de Estudiantes

Residencia
de Estudiantes

Residencia
de Estudiantes

Residencia
de Estudiantes

Residencia
de Estudiantes

Residencia
de Estudiantes

Residencia
de Estudiantes

Residencia
de Estudiantes

Residencia
de Estudiantes

Residencia
de Estudiantes

Residencia
de Estudiantes

Residencia
de Estudiantes

Residencia
de Estudiantes

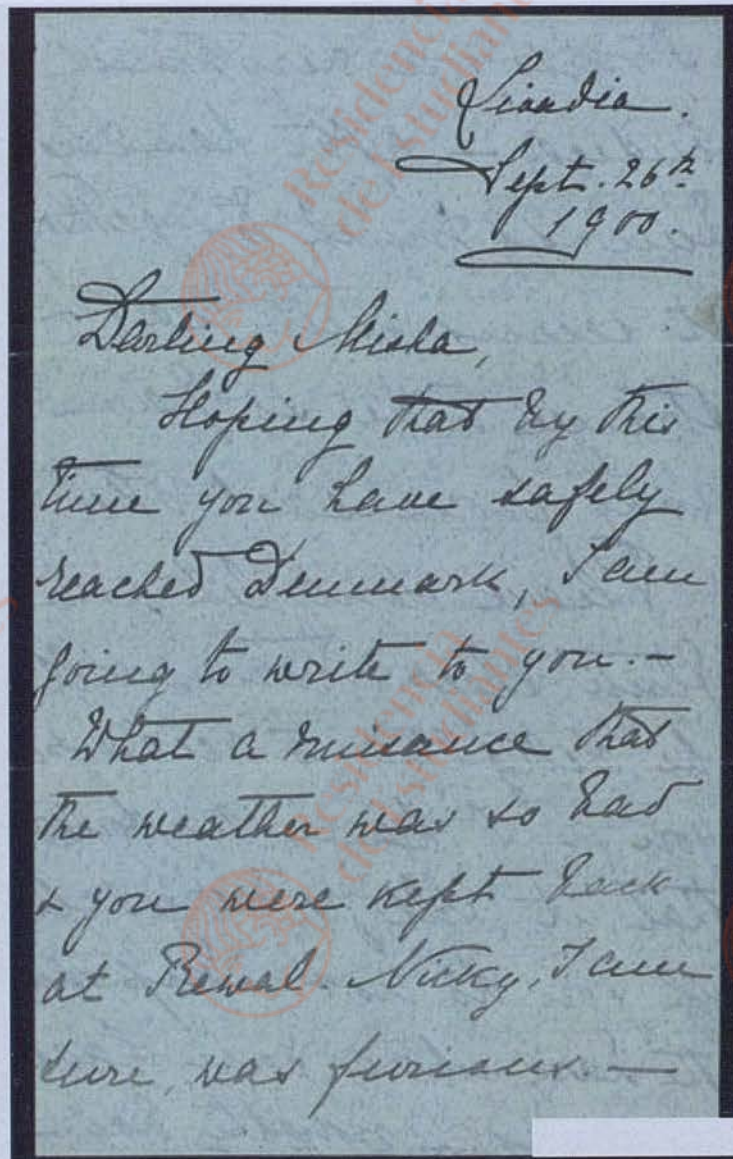

Título

Carta y Sobre de la Zarina Alexandra Feodorovna al Gran Duque Mikhail. 26 septiembre 1900

Tipo de objeto Carta. Autógrafo

Nº de Objetos

1

cm

005

Últimos años del zarismo absoluto

1890 hasta 1905

Desc Docum. (cómo es)

Descrip. Cont. (qué dice)