ALEJANDRO

PRINCIPE DE BAVIERA

July 31, 1957

Dear Marisol,

Many Thanks for your letter! The Lady von Plessen became nearly a nervous breakdown after your first cable, but after your second one ~~she~~ she was o.k. again. I enclose in my letter her adress for advertising. I am sure this little dackel is the nicest of his kind in the world and everybody will admire him.- The prince Hohenlohe answered that he doesn't work more for the Bavarian book and he sende~~d~~ aunt Pilar's letter to: Herr Staatsarchivrat Gerhart Nebinger, Neuburg/Donau, Staatsarchiv. I wrote to him and explained everything in a long letter and he answered very kindly in a even longer letter with a lot of questions. Yesterday I answered again .He unde~~r~~derstoud that "Odriel" doesn't exist and will change it in the new bavarian book and needs ^{CHRISTIAN} first names of your children (callname underlined), birthdate and birthplace. You can write them to me or even better to him, as 2 years ago he wrote for this to your father in law and never got an answer. When you would write to him remember him that he informs the "Handbuch des Deutschen Adels",- as he has the fotokopie and has more autority than I, in charge of the Bavarian Part of this Book. But I don't mind when you inform me with the dates of your children and I write to him, ^{on a piece of paper} as surely in the meantime he has new questions! He wanted to know if ^{and you all} Pepe or only you and your children wanted to Option back to Germany- ^{the family} I wrote very kindly no, he only should interprete exact Rupprechts letter and let you your name and drop the silly "Odriel" and inform the German book. I think he is intelligent and has good will, but loves like all this people complications.-Today I received the information of your bank for the 300 Mark- many thanks! I hope you, Pepe, Christa, Fernando, Tessa, Louis and the little Dackel have a wonderfull time and we will be in connection!

I am your thankfully Cousin

Sascha
