BRITAIN'S GREAT WAR EFFORT

6-12-39.

With hundreds of factories in all parts of the country working at full pressure on munitions and war material, Great Britain is making tremendous efforts to help win the war against Germany. It is announced also, that our aircraft production, already enormous, is to be doubled. This picture, taken during a tour of a large aircraft factory, shows Wellington bombers with their goddite construction, being assembled.

...ORDEAL OF FIRE.

The Guildhall meeting place of the ancient Guilds in the City of London, was one of the architectural masterpieces of the great Nazi fire-raising architect Sir Christopher Wren, built in 1411-1430, the beautiful City churches,
damaged by the Great Fire of London.
Sir Christopher Wren, architect of the helped with the reconstruction.
